Campus Drive Against Polio Is Launched

The campus March of Dimes was launched last Friday when Julius Wuerthner, Great Falls, appointed 3,200 students on a committee to procure MSU's $800 quota. Wuerthner was named chairman by the Missoula chapter of the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis.

"The Missoula chapter of the National Foundation retains 50 per cent of all contributions," Wuerthner said. "The remainder goes to the national fund for research and aid to stricken areas."

The campaign, which started Jan. 15 and continues until Jan. 31, will end in a country-wide chain of dances. The slogan, "We're going to dance so that they can walk," will prevail at the benefit dance to be held Jan. 31 in the Student Union building after the Grizzly-Bobcat basketball game.

Blanket donations from Greek letter organizations, living units, and other campus clubs and groups, have been pledged. M club Pres. Wilbur Scott, Jamestown, N. D., was the first to respond with a $15 contribution.

Spurs raised over $40 at the Rose Bampton concert Monday and Tuesday nights. Miss Bampton turned $25 over to Wuerthner by signing autographs at 25 cents apiece.

Trade Publication Will Feature Story On J-School

The Feb. 1 issue of the Publisher's Auxiliary, nationally known newspaper trade publication, will contain as one of its leading articles the history and development of the School of Journalism. Word of the publication comes from Editor Joseph W. LaBine.

Written by Ray W. Fenton, journalism instructor, the 2,000-word article includes pictures by Wallace M. Davis, graduate student, on training methods utilized by the staff of the School of Journalism.

The article is presented as one in a series on leading schools and departments of journalism throughout the United States.

Editor Lectures

John Lyman, editor and publisher of the Bozeman Courier, who is delivering a series of professional lectures in the School of Journalism this week. Last night Lyman was initiated into Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism fraternity. Richard Morrison of the Missoulian was also initiated.

Legislature Pleased With University

"Members of the combined House and Senate committees on the higher education system in Helena are very well pleased with things here at the University," Pres. James A. McCain said yesterday.

The president presented the university's budget for the next two years and request to raise the university millage tax to the combined committees Tuesday.

"The attitude of the legislature seems to be very favorable, although it must be remembered that they have many requests to fulfill," the president said.

Student Leaders, Athletic Heads Will Meet Tonight

A special meeting of student leaders and the University coaching staff will take place tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Eloise Knowles room.

The meeting, called by ASMSU Pres. Jerry Anderson, Helena, is to discuss the present athletic situation at MSU.

Doug Fessenden, director of athletics, Coach Ed Chinske, Coach Paul Szakash, and Assistant Graduate Manager Jack Hoon will be among the University officials present.

Students at the meeting will include certain representatives of various campus organizations and the ASMSU Athletic board.

Among those attending will be the presidents of Interfraternity and Panhellenic council and of the Organized Independent students, the Kaimin editor and sports editor, the president of Bear Paw and Tanan of Spur, and the heads of other honorary groups on the campus.

In a three-hour conversation Tuesday, Hoon expressed to Anderson his appreciation of the ASMSU's recent action in employing him as assistant graduate manager. He pledged his full cooperation and support to the student body.

Convo Features Symphony Friday

Convocation this week will feature selections by the University symphony orchestra directed by Eugene Andrie, instructor in music, Convo Chairman Howie Hunter, Missoula, said yesterday.

The symphony will play a movement from Beethoven's concerto in C minor, followed by a movement of the London Suite by Coates, and a Rumanian fantasy by Velska.

Miss Elizabeth L. Hunter, director of college units of the American Red Cross in the Midwest area, will talk on Red Cross work in colleges.

Central Board Decides Students May See One Grizzly-Bobcat Game

Band Will Draw $500 from Traveling Fund To Pay for Instrument; Board Recommends Travel Budget; Roberts Named to Board

In a busy three-hour session Tuesday, Central Board decided that each student may see at least one of the Grizzly-Bobcat basketball games here, Jan. 30-31, and that the season's remaining home games would be played in the University gym.

Traditions board last night decided that University men and women could sit together at home basketball games.

Board Chairman Howard Golder, Missoula, said the original plan of sectionized seating was abolished because expected large crowds made such a set up impractical.

FRESH VOTE TODAY FOR BOARD DELEGATE

A group of 212 from a list of 1,200 or more freshmen will select a class delegate to Central board today at 4 p.m. in the Student Union theater. That number of first year students registered yesterday for the election.

Class Pres. Jack O'Loughlin, Missoula, will preside.

Date Book . . .

Thursday

4 p.m.—Freshman elections, theater.

4 p.m.—Aquamaids, Men's gym.

7 p.m.—Masquer's meeting, Bitterroot room.

7 p.m.—University Symphony orchestra rehearsal, theater.

The board also directed the budget and finance committee to meet with university public relations man, A. C. Cogswell, and outline a budget controlling publicity-group traveling and authorized the band to draw $500 from its travel fund to pay for a sousa-phone.

Roberts Appointed

Among the minor issues discussed, Central Board approved the appointment of Pierre Roberts, Missoula, to Traditions board, the reimbursement to Traditions board for their share of the football-players banquet expenses, and the appointment of Joe Thiebes, Great Falls, to Athletic board.

Here is an itemized brief of what happened:

1) According to the present seating arrangement planned for the Grizzly-Bobcat games here Jan. 30 and 31, each student will be entitled to one ticket to one game only.

To get this ticket the student must present his activity card at the Student Union business office between 9 a.m. Monday and 4 p.m. Wednesday.

If all available seats are not claimed by 4 p.m. Wednesday, remaining seats will be released to first-comers beginning 1 p.m. Thursday until game time Friday.

1,800 to Game Each Night

ARC Director Now at MSU

Miss Elizabeth L. Hunter, director of college units of the American Red Cross in the midwestern area, arrived in Missoula Monday to meet with members of the MSU unit, announced Dr. Harold Tascher, associate professor of sociology.

Howard Flint, Missoula, temporary chairman of the University Red Cross unit, has announced that Miss Hunter will speak in Old Science 111 at 5 o'clock this afternoon to all students interested in a college unit.

Tuesday a dinner was held in her honor at the Student Union. Members of the faculty committee in charge of the college unit, local Red Cross officers, and members of the personnel service were in attendance, said Dr. Tascher.

While in Missoula, Miss Hunter will confer with members of the local chapter of Red Cross. She will also meet with the temporary officers of the college unit, members of the faculty committee, and others interested in the development of the Red Cross program, said Dr. Tascher.

CAROLYN KIRKWOOD LEADS YELL TEAM

Carolyn Kirkwood, Missoula, will lead the yell team in place of George Shepard, Missoula, during the rest of the basketball season, according to Howard "Chippo" Golder, Missoula, Traditions board chairman.

Shepard recently injured his back and is unable to continue as yell king.

Non-Resident Off-Campus Girls Asked to Report

An urgent call for Missoula addresses of all out-of-town students not living in University residences was issued yesterday by Mrs. Peggy Leigh, housing and employment secretary.

This call includes both married and unmarried women students whose homes are not in Missoula and who do not live in dormitories, sorority houses, or University trailers and prefabricated units.

"It is necessary that we have this information in cases of emergency and to insure closer contact between the University and non-campus residents," Mrs. Leigh said.

She asked that these women students report immediately to the housing and employment office in University hall.

Seats At The Bobcat Series

In a gruelling three-hour session Tuesday, Central board mulled over some weighty and trivial matter that had to be mulled over, and out of it came an emergency seating plan for the Bobcat basketball series Jan. 31 and Feb. 1.

The plan arrived at seems to be the most fair, all things considered. First of all, we must remember that it is impossible for 3,151 students to get into our crackerbox gymnasium (that's where the games will be played). In fact, it would be impossible to get 3,151 students into the high school gym, if that floor had been decided upon. So something had to be done.

It is recognized that this series with Montana State college will be the highlight of the season and nearly everyone is expected to turn out to watch the two old rivals go at it.

So here's the scheme:

Starting at 9 a.m. Monday, students may sign up at the Student Union office for tickets to one game—either the first or the second. Activity cards will be punched at that time.

If, by 4 p.m. Wednesday, there are still seats left for either game, Thursday's Kaimin will so state, and students may, starting at 1 p.m. Thursday, pick up tickets to the other game. In other words, it will be possible for some students to see both games if all the seats are not gone by 4 p.m. Wednesday.

As only 100 general admission tickets were sold for this series, and as there are but 125 season and reserve tickets, students will comprise nearly the entire crowd. MSC students will not be here.

As the gym will accommodate approximately 1,700 students, in addition to the 225 town seats, that means that there will be about 250 students who will be able to see both games. This figure is arrived at as follows:

Seating capacity for students is 1,700 per night, or 3,400 for the series. Student enrollment is 3,151. Subtracting 3,151 from 3,400 leaves 249 or about 250 who will be able to see both games.

In the event that there are seats available for either game at game time, students will be admitted at the door upon presentation of their activity ticket.

Our advice is to get over to the Student Union between 9 a.m. Monday and 4 p.m. Wednesday for a one-night ticket. Then, if Thursday's Kaimin so states, pick up a ticket for the other night after 1 p.m. Thursday.

This arrangement applies only to the Bobcat series.

The University gym was decided upon for the remainder of this year's games because, being a home floor, the Grizzlies are more familiar with it and prefer to play there, according to a poll of the team members. If that's what the team wants, we're willing to let them play there, even though the gym is a little smaller than the high school gym and is not as new.

Clarence Streit Edits New Magazine

"Freedom and Union," a new magazine dedicated to the promotion of a world federal union, is edited by Clarence Streit '17, author of "Union Now."

The magazine contains forums and discussions on current world problems, and articles by prominent American and foreign statesmen and journalists.

After attending Missoula County high school and MSU, Streit served with the army in France for nearly two years. He studied at the Sorbonne in Paris and at Oxford, England, as a Rhodes scholar, then married Miss Jeanne DeFrance of Paris and became Rome correspondent for the Philadelphia Public Ledger in 1921. After service in Europe, Africa, and Central America, he went to Geneva in 1928 as the New York Times' League of Nations correspondent, and held that post for 10 years.

Since the publication of "Union Now" in 1939 he has devoted all his time to the cause of world union, and is president of Federal Union, Inc., according to his father, L. O. Streit, of Missoula. The author now resides in Washington, D. C.

Church Groups Plan Reception For Sullenberger

A reception for the Rev. Carl L. Sullenberger, newly appointed director of the affiliated School of Religion, has been planned for Sunday, Jan. 26, at 7 p.m. Sponsored by the organized church groups on the campus, the reception will be given in St. Paul's Lutheran church.

The Rev. Mr. Sullenberger arrived from West Lebanon, N. H., the first of this year to succeed the Rev. Harvey F. Baty as head of the School of Religion.

According to Robert I. Moran, Red Lodge, chairman, Pres. James A. McCain will give a welcoming address and Philip Magee, Butte, will speak on behalf of the students. Following the program, an informal gathering will be held downstairs where the Rev. Mr. Sullenberger will have an opportunity to greet the students.

Museum Will Reopen Soon

The University museum in Journalism 308 will open for public inspection early in the quarter, Mrs. Mary Elrod Ferguson, assistant director of museum and Northwest historical collection, said recently.

The museum, a repository for all historical collections of the Northwest, contains, among other things, historical Indian relics, newspapers, printing equipment, and guns.

Material in the museum is being reclassified with new cards giving the history of the article and donor. New cases are being prepared by the University carpenter shop to be used in displaying the numerous items.

Mrs. Ferguson said that interested parties have given leads on new materials for the museum which will be brought in as soon as feasible.

Dr. Paul C. Phillips, professor of history and political science, is director of the museum and historical collection.

Auditing Class Will Inventory Missoula Store

Twelve auditing class students will check inventory at the Missoula Montgomery Ward store, Feb. 1-2, D. J. Emblen, business administration professor, said yesterday.

"The work involved is in keeping with projects especially designed to introduce practical work with classroom study," Dr. Emblen stated.

"This is the first time the class has worked for a downtown establishment," he said. "We are making this an effort to cooperate with local business men as well as to gain practical experience."

The 12 students expected to go on the project will receive the regular pay for the work they do.

VAN DUSER PREDICTS RECORD IN MEETINGS

Cyrile Van Duser, Student Union manager, took a look at union records last week and came forth with the prediction that the number of meetings in the Student Union during the present school year would establish an all-time high. She also said that the meetings during 1946-47 would be almost double the 849 held during 1945-46, previous record year. The first full year of operation, 1936-37, after the union opened in the fall of 1935, totaled 467 meetings.

Pre-Marital Poll Taken

First Choice for Discussion at the Courtship And Marriage Institute Is "Emotional Maturity And Readiness for Marriage"

BY A. E. PEDERSEN JR.

Students questioned about a list of 13 proposed topics picked "Emotional Maturity and Readiness for Marriage" as first choice for discussion at the Courtship and Marriage institute scheduled for Jan. 27-29, Stewart Brandborg, Hamilton, chairman of a student planning committee, said yesterday.

Questionnaires were submitted to more than 500 students two weeks ago.

Second choice was "Relationships During Dating," with "The Psychology of Attraction and Mate Selection" third in popularity.

Least preference was shown for two topics dealing with problems of approaching parenthood and working arrangements within the family, perhaps because only 31 of the more than 500 questionnaires were filled out by married couples, Brandborg said. Distribution difficulties prevented adequate coverage of married students.

Student interest in the topics suggested will presumably be the basis for talks by Dr. Lawrence S. Bee, professor of social psychology at Utah State, main speaker at the institute.

A tentative program arranged by the student and faculty committees in charge of the institute includes a talk by Dr. Bee at convocation Monday, with subsequent talks scheduled for evenings in the Student Union theater and residence halls.

Education Club Will Debate on Teaching Jobs

Three students, a teacher, and a former teacher will debate the merits of teaching as a profession tonight before the Education club in the Nursery school at 7:30 p.m., according to Dean James W. Maucker, education school.

Non-students on the round table discussion will be H. L. Zahn, Missoula, who left the teaching profession to sell insurance, and Robert D. Watt, history and sociology teacher in the Missoula County high school, who returned to the profession after serving in Africa and Italy during the war.

Maucker said that students who will participate in the discussion are Dick Kern, Livingston, a graduate student who has no desire to teach; Jim Walsh, Missoula, a law student who is teaching a class in economics; and Donald Fox, Park City, a cadet teacher in the Missoula County high school.

Dave Christenson, Long Beach, Calif., will conduct the discussion.

Sigma Nus Down Corbin Hall Team

Almost complete control of both backboards and a superior defense gave the Sigma Nu basketball team an easy 53-to-28 victory over Corbin hall Monday night. In the second game, South hall defeated Theta Chi, 58 to 38.

Walterskirchen of Sigma Nu was especially effective under the basket, making most of his 21 points from that position. Herb Neils and Duane Peterson scored five points each to lead the Corbin hall team.

South hall held only a one-point lead at halftime over Theta Chi, but used a smooth fast-break in the second half to command a comfortable lead throughout. Schwend was high man for South with 19 points. Theta Chi's Muskett scored 12 points to lead his team.

Phi Sigs Victorious

Phi Sigma Kappa trounced Sigma Phi Epsilon, 47 to 25, in a second game played Tuesday evening. The SPE's found it an off night as they missed easy set-ups and repeatedly threw the ball away.

Fine backboard playing by Ellison gave PSK a seven-to-four lead after the first quarter. Forsythe penetrated the SPE zone defense to score often in the second period, which ended in a PSK 23-to-12 lead.

Swarthout connected twice for SPE, but Chaffee countered with three, followed by Smith and Johnson with one each to boost the PSK score.

Independents Lose

Sigma Chi defeated Independents, 36 to 32, in the first game played in the Men's gym Tuesday night. The game was slow during the first half due to the inability of either team to make connections. At the half, SX led, 21 to 12.

During the first part of the second half, the Independents rallied against a SX second string and cut the lead to five points. Jeannette dropped in a long shot and Lane sank two more and a free throw. The quarter ended 24 to 23 in their favor.

Early in the last quarter, Campbell scored to start a SX rally, which carried them to a four-point lead at the final whistle.

Manager Urges WAA Basketball Practice Turnout

Girls planning to participate in the WAA basketball tournament, beginning Jan. 28, are urged to get three hours of practice in before Monday, Dorothy Working, Willsall, basketball manager, stated at the board meeting Tuesday night.

Women sports offered for participation credit during winter quarter include basketball, swimming, bowling, and ping pong, Betty Smith, Ponca City, Okla., president of WAA, stated.

The gym will be available for basketball practice from 4 to 6 Monday through Thursday and 7:30 to 8:30 on Wednesday nights. A practice list has been posted in the gym in order that girls may record their practice hours. This list must be signed before credit is given, Miss Smith said.

The swimming pool is open Tuesday and Thursday each week from 3 to 4 and from 7:30 to 8:30 for those desiring to enter the telegraphic swimming meet, scheduled during March, the exact date not definitely set.

University Drops JV Basketball

No junior varsity basketball team will represent MSU this season, according to Coach Ed Chinske. Coach Chinske attributed the late start and the small schedule for the decision.

The uncertainty as to when the university gym would be available for the teams prevented the scheduling of any games. The high school gym was being used daily by the varsity team and the various high school teams.

game. Last fall Fort Missoula donated some bleachers to the University, and by using these in the gym the University expects to accommodate almost as many people as the high school gym admits.

About 225 seats are being saved for fans who hold 'season tickets or reserve seat tickets. Mr. Badgley expects an attendance over 2,000 each night.

Team Prefers U Gym

2) Director of Athletics Doug Fessenden, representing Coach Jiggs Dahlberg and the athletic department, said that the basketball team as a whole and Coach Dahlberg preferred to play the rest of the home games in the University gym.

In weighing the obligation to activity ticket holders versus the support of the basketball team, ASMSU Business Manager Bill Hinrichs, Havre, compromised in view of the majority's opinion and concluded:

That no matter where the games are played the seating capacity will be inadequate, and about 2,000 people will be turned away from the doors. As for the business angle, the school will lose a slight amount because of fewer seats at the University gym than the high school gym.

Budget May be Established

3) A. C. Cogswell recommended to the board that an ASMSU budget be established for the travel of student groups and promotional tours. He pointed out that ASMSU appropriates money for this purpose anyway, and that it might as well be done under a system which would gain the most from this money.

Sunday Concert Will Feature Piano Solo

John Crowder, dean of the music school, will be piano soloist for Beethoven's "Concerto in C Minor," presented by the school orchestra at the concert Sunday, Jan. 26, at 8:15 p.m.

Dean Crowder has performed the three movements of the concerto several times before with such noted orchestras as the Seattle Symphony, according to Conductor Eugene Andrie.

The orchestra will also present Mozart's "Overture to the Magic Flute," Jonathan Bottishill's "Air for Strings and Woodwinds," James Hook's "Allegretto in G Major," and "Roumanian Fantasy," by Carol Velska.

Also of interest to concert enthusiasts will be the presentation of Eric Coates' "London Suite," consisting of "Convent Garden," and "Westminster."

Arthur Meyer will be assistant conductor.
